

Course Code: CS1940
Name of the Programme: BCA (Hons.)
Name of the Course: Entrepreneurial Mindset
Semester: II
Course Credit	No. of Hours Per Week (L + T + P)	Total No. of Teaching Hours
2	1:0:2	45
Course Objectives:
a) Teach students how to identify market opportunities and analyze business ideas.
b) Introduce the POCD (People, Opportunity, Context, Deal) framework for evaluating startups.
c) Build financial literacy and help students understand startup financing.
d) Enable students to use tools like the Business Model Canvas for planning and presenting business models.

Course outline (Syllabus of the course)

Module - 1 : Market opportunities to gain multiple business model insights	No. of Hours
	3 Hrs.
Problem Identification: Techniques for spotting problems worth pursuing and understanding market demand. Market Sizing: Tools and methods for estimating market size and understanding customer willingness to pay. Opportunity Analysis: Case studies on identifying and capitalizing on opportunities within various industries. Value Proposition: Developing compelling value propositions that clearly address identified market needs.
Module - 2 : Building a business through People & Opportunity in POCD framework	No. of Hours
	3 Hrs.
Introduction to POCD: Understanding the People, Opportunity, Context, and Deal framework. Customer and Consumer Insights: Differentiating between who the customer is and who the consumer is. Case Studies: Examining successful businesses that have effectively utilized the POCD framework.

Module - 3 : Building a business through Context & Deal in POCD framework	No. of Hours 3 Hrs.
Introduction to POCD: Understanding the Context, and Deal framework. Strategic Development: Applying the POCD framework to build robust business strategies. Case Studies: Examining successful businesses that have effectively utilized the Context & Deal framework
Module - 4 : Basic understanding of key financial metrics	No. of Hours 3 Hrs.
Financial Literacy: Building comfort with basic financial terms and concepts crucial for entrepreneurs. Key Financial Metrics: Understanding metrics that are essential for evaluating business health. Financial Planning: Tools and techniques for financial forecasting and budgeting. Interactive Workshops: Practical exercises to develop and analyze financial sheets and models.
Module - 5 : Finance for a startup and calculating value of a startup	No. of Hours 3 Hrs.
Sources of Finance: Overview of different financing options available for startups. Business Model Canvas (BMC): Detailed exploration of the BMC as a tool for articulating business value. Startup Valuation: Methods to calculate the value of a startup, including practical case examples. Funding Strategy: Developing strategies to attract and secure necessary resources for a startup

Course Outcomes:
a) Analyze market opportunities to gain multiple business model insights
b) Building a business through people and opportunity in POCD framework
c) Building a business through context and deal in POCD framework
d) Develop financing strategies for a startup by evaluating funding sources and estimating its value using a business plan and Business Model Canvas.

Textbooks:

1	Ries, E. (2011). The lean startup: How today's entrepreneurs use continuous innovation to create radically successful businesses (1st ed.). Crown Business. ISBN: 978-0307887894
2	Sinek, S. (2009). Start with why: How great leaders inspire everyone to take action (1st ed.). Portfolio. ISBN: 978-1591846444

Reference Books:

1	Levitt, S. D., & Dubner, S. J. (2005). Freakonomics: A rogue economist explores the hidden side of everything (1st ed.). William Morrow. ISBN: 978-0060731335
2	Aulet, B. (2013). Disciplined entrepreneurship: 24 steps to a successful startup (1st ed.). Wiley. ISBN: 978-1118692288

Laboratory Components

No	Activity
1	Examining successful businesses that have effectively utilized the POCD framework.	Books & Internet Research
2	Creation of business model canvas for existing businesses in the FMCG, software-Gen AI, other niche domains.	BMC templates
3	Creation of business title & proposition sheets for various products.	Instructions
4	Creation of templates for business proposals and finance sheets.	Defined templates
5	Creation of BMC, Proposition sheet, Minimum viable product for a self ideated product.	Instructions